The ranks of the Democracy of this city

threatens its peace and prosperity. Saturday last, as is well known, the primaries for city officers were held, and resulted in great dissatisfaction to numerous zealous candidates for public favor. Saturday night, or rather Sunday morning, when the result was announced at the city building, the first breeze of discontent was discernable, and during Sunday the disaffected parties gained largely in numbers. What was said and done, however, was in a quiet way, it being expected that a recount of the vote would be made. and that so far as regarded the office of City Sergeant, between the candidates for which the trouble arose, all questions of difference might possibly be amicably adjusted. But a recount was denied, and the naelstrom which had so darkly threatened justed. But a recount was denied, and the manistrom which had so darkly threatened trouble began to boil in all its fury among the faithful. The painful suspense which had existed because of the uncertainty as to what would be finally done in the premises gave way to disorder, and the hue and cry was soon raised by the disaffected that to support the regular Democratic ticket as returned by the judges of election would be to uphold political crookedness and corruption. The leaders of the party have vainly attempted to check the career of the bolters, but with indifferent success.

A representative of the INTELLIGENCES as about the task of developing the true inwardness of the trouble, and the readers of the INTELLIGENCES are entitled to the result of his labor. The city building was the first place visited, in search of Sergeant Smith. Entering that palace of economy, the scribe cast his eyes in all directions, but failed to see the genial Sergeant. The Mayor, however, was on hand, and in company with numerous deputies, and others was discussing very warmly the merits of Major James Sweeney's (not majorjimsweeney's) card, announcing his intention to free himself from the shackles of the cliques and rings through which fraud was practiced, and become an independent candidate for the Sergeantey. The Mayor was quite severe in his denunciation of the aftempt to go behind the returns, and said that the Democratic party could not allow the vote to be re-canvassed and Republican votes cast for both Smith and Sweeney thrown out. He said that to be sure there were Republican votes cast for both Smith and Sweeney thrown out. He said that the trem of the said that the treatment of the factor of the said that the democratic party could not allow the vote to be re-canvassed and Republican votes cast for both Smith and Sweeney thrown out. He said that the treatment of the thrown out: He said that to be sure there were Republican votes cast, but there was no remedy. With the Mayor's views all concurred with singular unanimity, and appeared to greatly fear that the result of this announcement would result in the utter defeat of Smith, a gentleman in the room remarking, "No matter who was nominated by the party—even if it were Toby Vance—he should receive the full support of the party."

Passing on in quest of further public opinion, the seribe encountered another prominent gentleman of the Democratic party—one whose views differed widely from those of the Honorable Mayor. His impression was that great fraud had been practiced; that Major Sweeney had been actually swindled out of the nomination.

"Why," said he, "jump in my sleigh had been actually swindled out of the nomination.

THE COURTS—COUNTY COURT—Judge Royd.—This Court yesterday transacted the following business:

The case of W. H. Woodward vs. Chas. Fisher, was continued generally.

Second papers of naturalization were granted to August Helmbright, a native of Germany, and first papers to Louis Commer, also a native of Germany.

The case of Burns & Gillespie vs. Mackin & Co., is still on trial.

has been carried on to a great extent, and unless Major Sweeney insists on a recanvass of that vote, or runs independent, I shall lose all confidence in him."

By this time we had arrived in the Sixth ward, where the cry of "fraud" was long and loud, and our reporters ears were greatly astonished thereat. But passing on down into the Eighth ward the disaffection seemed more general. In the two wards named, and the Fifth, but few came in our way who did not favor the bolters. Before returning to the central portion of Before returning to the central portion of the city Major Sweeney himself was en-countered, and talked quite freely in jusification of his course, stating in subs

Just at this point a gentleman came up, and in the presence of the Major stated that the report was current that the Sixth ward ballot hox was missing, and it this some evil-disposed person had even started the rumor that it had been taken to the Register office, where it still remained—minus the ballots.

A number of gentlemen and a promi-Side were also interviewed, who expressed great surprise at the rupture between the two factions. Among these was Sheriff George R. Tingle, whom the seribe suc-ceeded in button-holing at a late hour

Major Sweeney Comes to the Front

To the Voters of the City of Wheeling:

At the Democratic election on the 11th inst., I was a candidate for nomination for the office of City Sergeant. My understanding was that it was purely a Democratic primary, and that none but Democratic primary, and that none but Democratic would be allowed to vote. To my surprise I found that Republicans were allowed to vote for my opponent at many of the voting places by judges notoriously in his interest. By this means, although I have carried five wards of this city out of the eight, I am on the face of the retunns, defeated by a few votes. This result my friends believe was procured by the grossest fraud and had faith. Although the vote polled in the Sixth ward, 550 votes, is more than prima facial evidence of fraud, and although I have asked that the Executive Committee of the Democratic party shall canvass and recount the vote, the Chairman of the Committee has peremptorily refused to call the committee together for that purpose, and refused my reasonable and proper request. In view of the fact that I was undoubtedly chosen their candidate by a large majority of the Democratic candidate for the office of City Sergeant at the coming charter election.

In view of the fact that I was undoubtedly chosen their candidate by a large majority of the Democrats voting on the 11th instant, and at the earnest request of many friends, of both parties, I have determined to become a candidate for the office of City Sergeant at the coming charter election.

I most respectfully solicit the votes of citizens of all parties who desire to crush out ring rule and ring politicians in this city. I ask the votes of those who desire to banish politics from our city affairs. And finally, I ask the votes of all citizens who desire to see broken the ring governed by the Sheriff of this county, and who desire to see broken the ring governed by the Sheriff of this county, and who desire to administer to him a rebuke and teach him that he was elected to attend to the business of the Sheriff's office, and not intermeddle in every political struggle, whether interested therein or not, and whether occurring in the State Legislature, the county, or the city. I desire to see the county, or the city. I desire to see whether the people of this city will ratify the conduct of the Sheriff and his clique by the election of one of his henchmen to office. Most respectfully yours, JAMES W. SWEENEY.

We are surprised to see so many still suffering with neuralgia and Rheumatism, when they can be cured.
